

WOW! Employee Volunteers Gave Generously in 2018

Englewood, Colo. – January 24, 2019 – WOW! Internet, Cable & Phone (NYSE: WOW), a leading broadband and communications service provider, today announced its employees volunteered more than 4,000 hours in their communities in 2018, a 30% increase over hours volunteered the previous year. In total, WOW! donated more than $250,000 to organizations and communities last year.

Through its “WOW! in the Neighborhood (WIN)” program, employees across the company’s 19 markets, helped improve the lives of others through local charities, by donating the time equivalent of more than $71,000. Employees choose to give their time and talent to a variety of organizations, including Ronald McDonald House, Habitat for Humanity, American Red Cross and the Salvation Army.

In addition to the $71,000 equivalent of volunteered time through the WIN program, WOW! donated more than $40,000 to Panama City-based WOW! employees affected by Hurricane Michael, some of whom lost their homes, and donated approximately $150,000 in higher education technology grants.

“WOW! prides itself in treating our customers like neighbors, and we feel the same way about the charitable organizations that do such great work,” said David Brunick, WOW!’s chief human resources officer. “We’re beyond proud of the WOW! employees, who put into action WOW!’s vision by giving to charities and organizations in the neighborhoods we serve.”

WOW! in the Neighborhood was created by employees in 2011 as a way to encourage all WOW! employees to improve their communities by donating time and talent to local charities of their choosing.
